SWIG BANKRUPT

$67,000 IN DEBTS AND NO MONEY

Former Banker Lists Assets of $40,500, but Cash Is Not Among Them

Simon Swig is broke. Today he filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy.

He estimates his liabilities at $67,000 and his assets at $40,500. Swig says his unsecured claims total $46,100, of which the largest is a judgment of $16,500 held by the Tremont Trust Company. The secured claims amount to $25,000. Furthermore, the erstwhile wealthy banker says in his petition he is "without cash on hand."

To his petition Mr. Swig gives his residence at Lafayette avenue, Hull, and his occupation as a newspaper man.

LIST OF CLAIMS.

The secured claims are held by Arthur I. Baker, who has a mortgage valued at $15,000 against an $11,000 debt, and by William I. Shell, who has a mortgage for $9,000 on real estate.

The unsecured claims: Town of Hull, $800 for taxes; Tremont Trust, $16,500; James H. Doyle, Rockport, $10,000; James W. Douglas, Hull, carpenter work, $2,500; George L. Mayberry, legal services, $1,000; Morris Berenson, $1,000; Gold Land Jewelry Company, $500; Samuel W. Tucker, Newton, $400; George Summers, $1,000; and The Tremont Plan, $1,000.

Mr. Swig says he has real estate worth $25,000, ship holdings amounting to $15,000, and note for $500.

Other claims are: John Broderick, $500; Dr. Fred A. Buckford, $200; C. R. Dean Clear Company, Insurance, $1,000; Harvey E. Frost, Insurance premium, $50; Andrew Calliano, Hull, $200; Elizabeth Greenwood, 1909; A. Lowenstein & Sons, furniture, $400; Lamson & Hubbard, fur, $400; Mrs. Meyer Malloy, $1,000; Peabody-Anderson, $1,000; Rogers & Webb, $200; Continued on Page 4, Column 4.

You Will Be Happier in Your Own Home—

The mere pleasure of ownership will promote happiness. But the knowledge that you have made a wise investment in a home of your own, which will give you a permanent and profitable return, will give you an even deeper satisfaction.

That's why we urge you to read The Boston American Real Estate columns. They contain so many home stories in and out of the city, which will help you to make a decision as reasonable as most.

Give yourself and your family the joy that only a home ownership can give. See today's Real Estate columns. You will find many home stories in and out of the city, which will help you to make a decision as reasonable as most.

The Real Estate columns where announcements of homes for sale are made will give you a good idea of the market.

Disappeared

MRS. LILLIAN CARD AND SON.

Mrs. Lillian Card, model and newspaper woman, is charged with taking her son from his father's custody. The mother was allowed to see him at intervals.

Mrs. Card is alleged to have gone to the Artway apartment on Armitage day while her husband was absent and taken the boy away, ostensibly for an automobile ride. Mr. Card has seen neither his wife nor the boy since.

Members of Mr. Card's household say Mrs. Card has remarked to friends that she was going to get out West and "start over."

AWARD BLIND MAN $200 AUTO DAMAGES

Neils M. Swenson can rest but fifty feet, so he got around Boston with a sign "I am blind" and sells lead pencils.

Frank Valara drove his machine into Neils at Washington and Belmont street in July, 1919.

Today Neils obtained an award of $200 damages.

Testifying on the stand, he said he makes $15 a week on an average and he spends all but twenty cents a day he spends for his living. The balance he sends to his wife and three children in New Hampshire.

CLEMENCEAU GETS DEATH THREAT

Georges Clemenceau, French war premier, who delivered his first American address last night at the Metropolitan Opera House.

The letter, which was signed "World War Veteran," was turned over to the police.

Extra police protection was immediately given to Mr. Clemenceau. When he went to the New York Chamber of Commerce this afternoon he was accompanied by thirty motorcycle policemen, instead of the two or three who had hitherto accompanied him when he went out.

The text of the letter follows: "Don't you dare let me hear of you will hear bullets flying about your head. Germany. If you don't heed our Continued on Page 11, Column 4."

BORAH ATTACKS "BLOODTHIRSTY" CLEMENCEAU

Washington, Nov. 22.—Premier Clemenceau's remarks last night were keenly resented today by members of the old irreconcilable group of Senators, who fought the League of Nations. Senator Borah of Idaho said today: "It is an outrage, it is intolerable that this bloodthirsty Frenchman, who had done more than anyone else to plunge the world in misery and Europe in wretchedness, should come over here and make such a speech."

LYNN BABY FALLS FIFTY FEET; UNHURT

Arthur Mann, twenty months old, evaded his mother, climbed on the roof of the rear porch of his home at No. 11 Sherry street, Lynn, lost his balance and plunged fifty feet to the ground.

Neighbors heard a scream and rushed out to find Arthur getting up, rubbing the tender part of his anatomy. They sent a call for three doctors.

The physicians found the boy had escaped without a scratch. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin L. Mann.

PEGGY MARSH AND HUSBAND "PARTING"
London, Nov. 21.—Reports in London and Paris that Peggy Marsh, a prominent figure in the international divorce proceedings against her husband, were denied by her today.

Nevertheless, her sudden departure from New York and her intention to remain in Europe for at least six months give credence to the rumors which are furnishing the best bit of gossip in London today.

"I am not thinking of divorce," she declared, but she admitted to the same breach that certain differences between her and her husband make a temporary separation advisable. Peggy has her son Tony with her.

GIRAFFE BORN IN BRONX ZOO IS DEAD
New York, Nov. 21.—Perseus, the son of Romeo and Juliet, and said to be the first giraffe ever born in the Bronx Zoo, is dead. He was born Monday, and from the first declined to take nourishment, disregarding his mother, Juliet, entirely. He was four feet ten inches tall and weighed eighty-seven pounds. Andrew Kingshew of Bridgeport, Ct., an animal expert, submitted by Zoo officials, found Perseus's neck sagging a bit. He fed the hairy giraffe from a bottle, but Perseus died.

PRISON POPULATION INCREASES 10,000
Washington, Nov. 21.—The prison population of the United States was today declared that henceforth the Angora Government would control the Dardanelles.

TURKS ANGERED BY ALLIES AT LAUSANNE
Constantinople, Nov. 21.—The Turkish Government issued a proclamation today declaring that henceforth the Angora Government would control the Dardanelles.

Lausanne, Nov. 22. (By International News Service).—The harmony which marked the first stages of the Near East peace conference had begun to crack under the strain when the delegates assembled again today in secret session.

Imet Pasha and the other Turkish delegates were plainly angered by the steady rejection of all their requests and they were particularly disgruntled over the active interest shown by the United States in Turkish affairs.

Premier Poincaré of France had been called back home on pressing business and his place as head of the French delegation was taken by Emile Barrère.

Amusement was caused here by news that the Turkish Government at Angora had issued a proclamation saying "the Turks now control the Dardanelles."

At the Dardanelles are used with Allied warships and Allied troops hold the shores on both sides, the proclamation is without effect except to add to the exasperation of the Allies, especially the British.

Venezelos Fights Turk Demand for Thrace
Lausanne, Nov. 22. (By the Associated Press).—The question of Western Thrace came definitely before the Powers today, when Imet Pasha presented to the Commission on Military and Territorial Matters Turkey's claim to all the territory enclosed within her frontier.

M. Venezelos, for Greece, immediately opposed the claim, and was supported by the Yugoslav and Rumanians, who favored maintaining the Maritsa River as the western boundary of Turkey in Europe and agreed with him that there should not even be a plebiscite to decide the sovereignty of the disputed territory, as Imet suggested.

A delegation representing Syria demands that the conference grant independence to their country, which was given the status of a French mandatory State in 1920.

U. S. Oil Interests to Share Mosul Fields
Paris, Nov. 22.—Negotiations are proceeding at London between French and British oil interests under which American oil interests will be admitted to co-venture participation in the Mesopotamian fields, according to the Lausanne correspondent of the Paris Herald.

The French and British, he says, will give up a part of the shares they received under the San Remo agreement.

Soviet Urges American Relief Continue
Constantinople, Nov. 22. (By the Associated Press).—H. C. Jaquith, managing director for the American Near East relief, has returned to Constantinople from Moscow, where he negotiated an agreement with the Soviet Government concerning future relief work of Americans in Georgia and Armenia.

The Moscow authorities, he reports, urged continuance of American humanitarian efforts, promising unqualified support.

ARMY PHONE GIRL PRAISED BY EDWARDS
As the result of showing unusual common sense in handling telephone messages from the War Department to the headquarters of the First Corps Area, Miss May Hunter, telephone operator in this area, for five and a half years, has received high praise for her work from Major-General C. R. Edwards and his staff.

WILLED $700,000 TO FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS
Asheville, N. C., Nov. 21.—The will of Dr. Carl von Ruck, of Asheville, tuberculosis specialist, bequeathed $700,000 for scientific research into the prevention and cure of tuberculosis. It was announced today. Dr. von Ruck died here November 5.

The von Ruck Research Laboratory, incorporated, established by him several years ago, will have charge of the fund.

notice

Hundreds of dresses in the lot above for about the cost of materials alone! Even new chiffon velvet dresses with cloth alone worth $3 a yard. Misses' party frocks from a maker who specializes in misses' dresses! Remember the big dress event last year—it was interesting to read the trade paper and trade magazine write-ups of our selling of dresses last November. We mention this simply to impress you with the very great importance of the dress values in Filene's Basement Thursday at 9 a. m.—we advise you to be here early!

WHY?

—how do we get so many dresses? Because we waited for the "break" in the dress market and bought underpriced odd lots and surplus stocks in great quantities for quick cash. It is the opinion of people in the market that on account of the new tariff, higher cost of raw materials, etc., similar dresses will cost much more later!

—included in this great lot are many dresses that have sold for nearly double this price right here this year! All fine quality materials, none of the inexpensive serge, velvets, jersey or tweed dresses!

—more space!—and though we doubled the selling space of our regular department last year—this year we are to have nearly three times our usual big space!

CHARITY BALL TO AID CHRISTMAS BASKET FUND

TICKETS ON SALE

Children to Give Entertainment in Connection With Event at Copley-Plaza

One of the most brilliant charity balls ever conducted in the Copley-Plaza Hotel will be held there on Monday evening, December 18, in aid of the Boston American Christmas Basket Fund.

PLAN CHARITY BALL FOR XMAS FUND

All profits from affair at Copley-Plaza Dec. 18 go to feed needy poor.

This affair will be the largest social event this season in behalf of the American's Christmas fund and it is expected that hundreds of persons will attend. The charity ball will be conducted under the joint auspices of Miss Helen M. Roche, talented organist of St. Augustine's Church, South Boston and Madame Maybelle Lyman School for Stage Children of No. 281 Massachusetts avenue.

TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets for the charity ball are already on sale and may be obtained from Miss Roche at her home, No. 12 Vesper street, South Boston, or from Madame Lyman and her numerous pupils. Tickets are selling at $1.00 each for adults and 50c each for children. Dress will be informal. An attractive entertainment will be given from eight to ten o'clock and general dancing will follow until one a. m. to the music of one of the best orchestras in New England. Plans are being made for many features in connection with the entertainment, including a "Christmas pantomime" depicting the work done by the American's Christmas Fund, in which Madame Lyman's pupils will be featured. There will also be solo and group dances, and many fine songs. The net proceeds above expenses will be contributed to the American's Christmas Fund and will be used solely for the purchase of food for needy families.

MADAME MAYBELLE LYMAN

The children of her school will have a prominent part in the entertainment which will be held at the Copley-Plaza Hotel on Monday evening, December 18. Have you made your contribution toward feeding those who would otherwise go hungry Christmas?

Madame Lyman has offered a year's tuition to the child selling the largest number of tickets for the charity ball. It is expected that other prizes will also be awarded.

Miss Roche, who will conduct the ball jointly with Madame Lyman, is a widely known in amateur theatrical circles. In addition to being organist of St. Augustine's Church she is also choir leader and has frequently assisted in concerts in aid of charitable purposes. She has also directed radio concerts at the various broadcasting stations in Boston and conducts a music school of distinction.

Among her clever pupils who will appear on the entertainment program will be Miss Ethel Cary, a seven-year-old prodigy, who plays the piano and violin and also sings and dances; Chester and Florio Hooper, known as the Hooper Twins, a clever musical and dancing number; Miss Lillian Walsh; Miss Adeline Hatch; and Miss Helen Driscoll of Dedham, a well-known concert soloist.

AMONG THOSE AIDING.

Among those who are aiding Miss Roche are Mrs. Fred Healy, Miss Gertrude Tolin, Miss Mary Tolin, Miss Angela Kirkwood, Miss Helen McCabe, Miss Esther O'Brien, Miss Anne Foley and Leo Connors of the Fitzgerald Post Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Among the clever kiddies of the Madame Lyman School for Stage Children, who will assist in making the ball a success are the following: "Baby" Jacqueline Leonard, "Baby" Eleanor Lee, Margaret Evelyn Kerns, "Baby" Selmer, Mary Jane Madigan, Gertrude Webster, Jeanne, Virginia Oliver, Lester, Gertrude, Evelyn, Helen, Marie, Betty, Helen Denney, Joe Sheppard, Dorothy Bernard, Dorothy Barry and Ethel Burdette.

Other kiddies who will assist at the ball are Gertrude O'Brien, Helen Webb, Mildred McKilligan, Jeanette Pagnutti, Irene Hatten, Marion Nottall, Anna Weiss, Doris M. Cook, Gertrude McKee, Anna P. Kelly, Doris Cook, Doris Hays, Electra Allen, Ethel Allen, Edna Mae Reavey, Marguerite Reavey and Alice Gashman.

Some of the other talented children who will take part are Myrtle Cashman, Virginia Cook, Dorothy Smith, Hazel Smith, Hazel Warner, Ruby Denney, Elizabeth Fox, Laurence Lester, Jane Leno, "Tootsie" Lillian Denney, Dorothy Moody, Vera Steward, Dorothy Woodward, Ruth Bernard, Natalie Copeland, Laura Gault, Melba Frost, Edna Connors, Marie Kerns and Ethel Bon.

Other children who will render their services at the ball are Alice Webb, Alice McCarthy, Bertha Dobert, Helen Farrell, Myrtle Kennedy, Margery Louise Ward, Francis Cook, Marion Redburn, Nellie Leahy, Shirley Scott Stone, Anna O'Leary, Ethel Flaherty, Isabelle Cassano, Virginia Hyland, Irene Gomer, Alice Pike, Doris DeMullis, Pearl, Dorothy Calahan and Louise McKinn.

Madame Lyman conducts one of the most selected schools in Boston and her semi-annual recitals have always attracted a large gathering of people.

DEWIES SHE IS TOWED 'BOBBY' GARLAND

"I have no intention of marrying 'Bobby' Garland and I know nothing at all about the marriage intentions filed at City Hall."

This is the unexpected answer shot into the budding romance of Robert M. Garland, Jr., a Harvard senior and pretty Dorothy F. Brown of the "Scandals of 1922" company, by none other than Miss Penion herself. Yesterday, marriage intentions were filed at Boston City Hall and Mr. Garland was then informed that the marriage could not take place until Miss Penion had obtained parental consent, as she is only eighteen years old.

"I have known Bobby since I was in the Baby Company," said the girl. "We met after a performance and had some good times together. I like him very much, for he is a nice boy, but I have no intention of marrying him."

According to early reports the marriage intentions followed an ardent stage-door courtship. But, Miss Penion was "looking down" on the marriage business.

Garland is twenty-two and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Garland of Los Angeles.

Urges Men to Keep Hats on in Lifts to Speed Trips

Cleveland, Nov. 22.—Men riding in elevators in buildings operated by the city of Cleveland are requested by Mayor Fred Fisher not to remove their hats.

"These fellows who have to be so polite and take off their hats just jam things up," Mayor Fisher said today. "They hold their hats over their stomachs and take up room that other people should have. They also block the way in getting in and out of elevators. So I'm going to put up signs reading: 'Please don't remove your hat in this elevator. Keep it on and help to speed up elevator service.'"

YOUR HUSBAND KNOWS THIS

Marriage is a beautiful partnership whose success depends largely upon the woman.

Every successful business concern has what is called its "reserves," that is, the Treasurer sets aside a certain amount of money to protect them in emergencies, or to cover their "overhead."

If money is needed for the business, they borrow from the bank and pay a few dollars in interest charges for the use of the money, and do not disturb their "reserves," and that is why they succeed.

Every housekeeper can apply this principle in her own home by coming here for her furniture and paying for it without touching the family savings, which are the "reserves" of her partnership, and which have been set aside for emergencies.

Business principles in home-making built beautiful partnerships.

What Else Do You Need for Thanksgiving? We Have It, and You May Have It Under the Terms of Our Broad Credit Arrangement.

We Save the Home

Should a purchaser die, we give a receipted bill on unpaid accounts up to $100, in accordance with agreement printed on the lease.

WANTS PEOPLE TO BUY AND CARRY COAL

Mayor Curley today was notified by Chairman Everett Morse of the municipal fuel committee that the time will soon come when it will be necessary to throw open the coal yards so people may obtain coal in small quantities by calling for it.

There is some opposition and complaints, the chairman points out in his letter to the Mayor, which will be brought to the attention of the coal dealers as well only by actual weight. If it comes to pass that any good number of persons attempt to get coal at an open place "handing and delivering" will be difficult.

PINCH HUB MAN IN SPRINGFIELD AS FIRE BUG

Springfield, Nov. 22.—Less than five minutes after William A. Robinson left his lodgings at No. 11 Madison street today, fire was discovered in his second-floor room. Prompt work by the landlady, Joke and George kept the fire from doing too much damage.

Police found Robinson on Madison street not far from the house. He was arrested on suspicion as a firebug.

Robinson, who is twenty-eight years old and came here two weeks ago from his home in the Maine, Long Island, was indicted any firebuging. He said he had been smoking a cigarette just before he left the house and the butt might have started the blaze. Robinson said he was working for

WOODHOUSE CALLED WIFE "OLD LEMON" IN LETTERS

ONE WEEK QUITS 'LIKE 40 YEARS'

Notes Read at $1,000,000
Suit Reveal Dorrit Was
"Spiteful" at Times

Burlington, No. 22.—C. Douglas Woodhouse just must have had a great predilection for pastry, for he repeatedly termed his sweetheart, later his wife, "Cutie Pie" and a male friend "Lamb Pie."

This came out when Warren Austin, counsel for Mrs. Dorrit Woodhouse, read C. Douglas Woodhouse's letter at the trial of the $1,000,000 alienation suit filed by the wife against her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Woodhouse.

Here are some of the letters: Written to sister St. Francis, San Francisco: "Now listen, Cutie, I thank you have been pretty mean to not write me this Winter and cheer me up, for I have missed you a lot. I mean that, too, so don't cut up your nose and make sooty remarks. Honestly, all things considered, do you think you have played very fair? Dorrit, I suppose you have found someone else that is claiming all your attention and that those who were at home are forgotten. I think you might at least have told me so. I am going to meet you at the train when you return and I am hoping that you will tell me that all my worries this Winter are groundless and that we can begin where we left off when you went away last Fall. Think it over, because I will be waiting for your decision when you get home." Sent Hampton, N. Y., September 3, 1918.

MENDS HER MANY KISSES.
"Cutie, Dear — I wonder if you heard my hero as I rolled out at 2 1/2 this morning. I hope you did, any how, and I hope that you are miserable, me, despite the visitor. I am pretty worried tonight and am wondering what you are doing and you can bet that I wish I were doing it with you. I am very sorry and could not have a word from you during the visit, anyhow. Many kisses for good night."

From Burlington to Rita Carlton Hotel, New York, November 14, 1918: "Well, Cutie, old dear, I am one pretty person, because I have to leave you and come back here. I miss you so much that I can hardly wait for you to come home. Please, please come back, for I need you so much. I delivered all the messages entrusted to my care, and gave running lamb many affectionate greetings for you. He looks very homesome, and he and I will be unbreakable until I return. Cutie, I wish I were back in the big city with you, for I miss you so much. I wish I were, Cutie, dear heart, please come home for I miss you so. Be a good girl and keep your eyes in the boat. A million kisses."

CALLS HER "OLD LEMON."
To Rita Carlton Hotel, from Burlington, Nov. 16, 1918: "I say, old dear, I do wish that I could hurry and come home for I am so homesome for you. I took rather his sweater and told me privately that he thought you were an old lemon not to come home sooner. I can hardly wait for Friday evening, Goe but I miss you Cutie Dear. D." Letter not postmarked: "If you do not care what people say, then why do you go so up about it? Personal criticism of myself so far as it does not affect you is quite immaterial to me. I know the sources from which it rings. What I told you last night was simply to excite certain things. It was not done with any other motive, nor does what I hear."

MRS. DORRIT STEVENS WOODHOUSE

about you have the slightest effect on me. EEK LIKE FORTY YEARS. Do you realize, Dorrit, that not a single week has gone by since you came back from your trip but what you have either got awfully mad or written me spiteful notes. Cutie, why make me so much unhappy when it can be avoided? Why make me so people very miserable? Please, please do not fail against me, for only makes misery and unhappy. From College Park to Burlington: "Dorrit, Dear, we are so day nearer the end of the war, I have been a week and I wear it seems like forty years, and miss you so much, dear, and would give anything to be back again. I am in Washington a few minutes, I sat Sunday, and sent you a box of Martha Washington. It seemed to me they are far better in Washington than in New York. "How is Canning Lamb, and how is miss me much? Oh, Dorrit, please do miss you so and how I wish could see you. Do you miss me a little? I hope so. Please write me very, very often, Dear, for I do love you and miss you so. "Your Douglas." From College Park to Burlington.

your mind on the — I arose at 2 a. m. this morning and have been at Albany all day, pursuing old fish. Yes, Cutie, I failed something fierce, but I brought home lots of eggs and herbs. I am most lonely. Cutie, please hurry home. I want you to have a good time, but make it snappy, for I need you here. This will be a long, lonesome week, and I will miss you so. I shall look for you a week from tomorrow. Please, please, don't stay any longer. "Burlington, Nov. 20, 1918. To Dorrit at Burlington, New York: "Now, Cutie, dear, I do wish you would hurry up and come home, for I am so very lonely, and I miss you so much. MADE HIM MISERABLE. "Listen, dear—please forget that settlement business, for it is the bank for you, any way you look at it. If you were homesick, anxious, and so, it might be something, but for a girl of your charm to think of wandering around in such an atmosphere among snooty people is absolutely foolish. Settlement work is for the unattractive females, but not for you. You know, Cutie, you do make me so unhappy when you scold me, and I was so miserable all the week night. Let us cut out all this scrap stuff and work in the 'be glad' lines. There is far more happiness in it. Please hurry home, dear, for I am so lonely, and I will be the station to see you. I wish I could kiss you good-night instead of having to write it. "Signal Corps School of Instruction, U. V. M., to Dorrit, August 1918: "Cutie pie, I do not see where you get the idea that I send all my love to you, or that I am trying to put anything over on you. The only time I had anybody in the car was one afternoon when I spoke before the Y. M. C. A. on their stamp, and I brought the thrift, Miss Miffed bust, downtown afterwards and left her at the postoffice as I was going before the draft board. The whole incident was so trivial that I had forgotten all about it. Was there any harm in doing that? If so, I humbly apologize, for such wrong, but it was simply a matter of business and you ought to know as well as I do that I would not take anybody riding on you, Dorrit, if time is too short to spend it in fighting about things which are more than worth the amount to nothing. I have not nor have I in the future any intention of filling you with the truth, and I apologize with not reserve for anything I have said to you. Let's for it, Dorrit. The times are bad enough now, and I have there should be no place for dramatics or suspicion. "D."

June 19, 1918, to Dorrit, Hotel Tuxford, New Haven, Ct.: "Dorrit, I do hope you are doing well. I am working just as hard as I can so I can hurry home to you, for I do miss you so very much and I am very lonesome. June 19, 1918, to Dorrit, Hotel Tuxford, New Haven, Ct.: "Dorrit, I do hope you are doing well. I am working just as hard as I can so I can hurry home to you, for I do miss you so very much and I am very lonesome. June 19, 1918, to Dorrit, Hotel Tuxford, New Haven, Ct.: "Dorrit, I do hope you are doing well. Why Corns?
to your druggist

The simplest way to end a corn is Blue-jay. A touch stops the pain instantly. Then the corn loosens and comes out. Made in a colorless clear liquid (one drop does it) and in thin plaster. The action is sane. Pain Stops Instantly

PONZI TOO BUSY TO TAKE IN $33,000

Charles Ponzi and his help at No. 7 School street were so busy that they didn't have time to take $12,000 in three hours over the counters of the wizard's Washington street office.

For three days John Nelson, John Ponder and Harry L. Mahoney went to the main office with the $12,000 in their pockets and each day they were told to keep it until the morning.

Nelson so testified today in Federal Court at the trial of Ponzi and his accomplices.

This money finally was deposited at the Pond branch in Hanover street and eventually was given to the trustees in bankruptcy. There is far more happiness in it. Please hurry home, dear, for I am so lonely, and I will be the station to see you. I wish I could kiss you good-night instead of having to write it. "Signal Corps School of Instruction, U. V. M., to Dorrit, August 1918: "Cutie pie, I do not see where you get the idea that I send all my love to you, or that I am trying to put anything over on you. Doctor Needs Dad's Consent to Wed;

Is Only 20;

Dr. John W. Dodge of Boston confessed to only twenty years at City Hall when applying for a marriage license to end Miss Florence Peters, a nurse of Ipswich. Whereupon the extremely youthful physician was shocked to learn that despite his medical degree his father's consent was necessary.

Dr. Dodge Senior, who is head of a private hospital in the Back Bay, where the romance of nurse and doctor began, was hurriedly summoned to City Hall and suitably equipped with the formality for his son.

FAVOR RANK OF REAR ADMIRAL FOR RUSH

A letter sent to every member of Congress from New England by Mayor Curley, asking their support of the bill for the retirement of Captain William R. Rush, U. S. N., former commandant of the Charlestown Navy Yard, with the rank of rear-admiral, has had favorable replies from the Congressmen.

JESUITS HOLD BIG CARNIVAL TONIGHT

Thousands of people from all over the archdiocese of Boston attended the solemn high mass for the children and parishioners of Old St. Mary's North End, on the third day of the diamond jubilee of the Jesuit fathers. In the evening there was a great crowd at the children's entertainment and parent given in St. Mary's school theatre.

The five days' celebration will be brought to an end with a great civil celebration tomorrow night in Faneuil Hall. Mayor James M. Curley will deliver an address and there will be several musical numbers. The feature will be an address by U. S. Senator David I. Walsh.

Simple Way To End Dandruff "Use Liquid Arvon"

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just add about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid Arvon from any drug store, it will kill you will need, easily, when washing, using enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in with the finger tips.

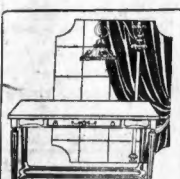

By securing most, if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely destroy every single dandruff you may have. You will find, too, as you use it, that the scalp will be healthy, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, thick and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

WENT TO THE DOCTOR AND THE DOCTOR SAID:

"Take Baslain's Gas Tablets"
"Those pains around your heart after eating are caused by gas pressure from the stomach. This shortness of breath and palpitation can be traced to the same source. Your fingers ache and limbs feel numb and 'go to sleep' because the gas pressure restricts circulation in various parts of your body. "The best and safest way to relieve this condition is to take Baslain's Gas Tablets before and after meals. One at the start, one after and get a dollar's worth of Baslain's Gas Tablets. The very first dose should give much relief. There's nothing better for the prevention of gas and stomach distress. Baslain's Gas Tablets, in the yellow boxes, are for sale by all reliable druggists. FICKE HAS OUTLOOK FOR SONGS

It's a Case of "Agreeing to Disagree," Mr. Ficke Explains

He wrote to her in glowing verse
Of life and love and romance
But now his metric on the blink
And she's become a divorcee.

Arthur Davidson Ficke, poet, playwright and expert on Japanese prints at Fogg Museum, Harvard University, will no longer sing love songs for the edification of his wife, Evelyn Blunt Ficke. Mr. Ficke will join the chorus in mourning the "Alimony Blues."

BOSTON GREEK CHAMP

BICKLE AL CALZA WILL TRY TO TOSS LEWIS AT ARENA TONIGHT

ALSO TO BATTLE

By JACK CONWAY.

Three champions on the same card!

That's why wrestling fans will storm the Boston Arena tonight to witness the monster show to be staged under the direction of the Old Howard Management.

Stranger Lewis, world's heavyweight champion, battles George Kotsanos, Greek champion.

George Calza, Italian title holder, opposes Cliff Bickley of California.

Then, so that everybody may be in the best of humor when the first big bout is staged, Joe Percelli, Italian wildman, will quarrel with Charley Metro, Albanian tiger.

The show has a big appeal to the various classes of wrestling fans. As a result, a capacity crowd is expected to jam the arena.

Watch Kotsanos in his bout with Lewis. That's our tip. We don't predict that the Greek will win, but we feel sure he will give the Stranger the toughest battle the champion has ever had in Boston.

It will be the second meeting between this pair. Their last match was staged at Columbus, Ohio, and was a draw.

Kotsanos gave Lewis a furious battle on that occasion. When the Stranger recovered to rough house tactics, Kotsanos beat him at his own game and finally lifted him into the air and tossed him clean out of the ring into the crowd.

"I'll do the same tonight if Lewis tries any underhanded moves," said the Greek today.

Kotsanos has won seven matches in a row. He is the taste of victory and doesn't intend to permit Lewis to conquer him this time.

Bickley Will Prove Real Value to Calza.

George Calza, hero of every Italian, will receive his best test when he opposes Bickley. The latter is one of the best grapplers in the world. He recently scored a fall over Stanislaus Zhyrko and might have won if the big Pole had not injured him while securing a fall.

If Calza should win over Bickley, he will be able to demand consideration from Lewis in the Zhyrko brothers and Stecker. But if he goes down to defeat, Bickley will be the one to get the big matches and the money that goes with them.

Therefore, fans can expect both men to exert themselves to their utmost tonight.

The preliminary between Percelli and Metro should furnish action. And that's what the fans are seeking.

We pick Lewis and Calza to win.

MONTREAL SAYS HE WILL BEAT PANCHO VILLA

By KINGSIDE.

Can Young Montrell defeat Pancho Villa, world's flyweight champion?

We shall have the answer when these two brilliant ring men battle in a 10-round bout at the Arena A. C. show at the Boston Arena next Monday night.

Montrell, master boxer and great ring star, is based by the crowd as the crowned champion, weight 118 lb. He has beaten Peter Young, Montreal's former Pancho Villa, present title holder.

Unfortunately for Montrell, he has been unable to get a shot at the best of the bantams when the latter has possessed his title.

Montreal, it will be remembered, was the one who stopped Danny Edwards' sensational run of victories.

A great boxer and fine ring general, Montreal has been able to dispose of the toughest kind of opposition.

How good is Montreal?

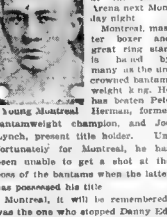

A difficult question.

He makes the mediocre boxers look ridiculous. He boxes just right enough to make out the headliners.

Montreal says he will win over Villa. And he says it without the least bit of boasting. He realizes that Villa is a dangerous pugilist and aggressive. But he says his own left hand will carry him to victory.

To which Pancho Pancho replies: "That's what Edwards and Goldstein said."

This is the biggest bout ever staged in Boston. The Arena Club will be obliged to outfit Ted Richard of New York. Richard figured the fight and Montreal was drawn $25,000 at Madison Square Garden.

HARMON BA. TILES DIGGINS FRIDAY

Willie Harmon of New York, and "Porky" Diggins of Newbury, N. H., top the bill in a ten-round bout at the Lyceum A. C. of Marlboro, Friday night.

If Calza should win over Bickley, he will be able to demand consideration from Lewis in the Zhyrko brothers and Stecker. But if he goes down to defeat, Bickley will be the one to get the big matches and the money that goes with them.

Therefore, fans can expect both men to exert themselves to their utmost tonight.

HOPPE GOES FOR BILLIARD CHAMP

New York, Nov. 22.—Willie Hoppe retained the 18.2 balliard championship when he defeated Jake Schaefer, title holder, in the final game of the tournament at the Pennsylvania Hotel by a score of 100 to 253.

It was a tossup whether the character of William F. or Willie P. dominated. As usual William F. was the better player, but Schaefer was in a hurry, and he played off his last 300 points of the match in three minutes. That's the skill of the old young Willie that shows as it has not shown before in years.

There had been reports that Hoppe's arm was ailing and that he never would be able to attain his old form again. But when he flashed a string of 111 in his second inning and finished with runs of 145 and 108 in evidence that had been in place in these reports vanished.

Hoppe was crowned champion for the first time. He showed evidence of the terrific strain in his face at times and his play took how truly his arm had to effect. Schaefer's highest run was 90 and his next best 61 and 45. He averaged only 27.12.

Hoppe enriched himself by $2,000.

of the stake money and 46 per cent of the net gate receipts. It is estimated his share will run close to $10,000.

Schaefer, the defeated champion, won second honors.

After the match Hoppe said he had no intention of retiring from the game for a year at least.

Schaefer, second, gets $1,000 and 25 per cent of the receipts. Conlin's share is $1,000 and 15 per cent. Horemans gets $1,000 and 15 per cent, and Cochran $250 and 4 per cent. Harberger got experience. He failed to win a game.

Reper Conlin completely upset all the odds by defeating 750-odd Horemans, Belgian champion, 50 to 201, in the afternoon game.

Conlin gained third prize and place in the tournament with his grand average of 50.00, while Horemans' went down to 23.95. It was Horemans' grand defeat in five engagements, which won him his share of the prize money, $1,000, and his percentage of the prize.

Conlin broke the spirit of Horemans by putting together a massive clutch in 19 on his opening turn at the table.

Conlin's victory also technically won the European championship which Horemans held.

HARVARD NOT FRETTING ABOUT THE PUNTING

Harvard Pitts stood in the outfield of the Soldiers Field freshman diamond and punted over the stadium wall to the running track inside, not once, but twice.

The Harvard authorities will not worry about missing Yale in the Blue Bowl Saturday.

Coch Fisher is undecided who will start in the backfield. He includes Jack Hammond's name in the regular line, Owen, George and Chapman.

With Buell on his pins Hammond may be called on to do the drop kicking, but Karl Pfaffen may be reckoned with when it comes to performing the three-point stunt. He is the best drop kicker on the Crimson team.

Hammond's six punts in the first half of the Brown battle averaged fifty yards. That means that some of his punts went sixty yards, for he was obliged to stand ten yards behind his line of scrimmage.

Eastman, Buell, Holder, Spaulding and Gordon were at practice, but did not take part in it. Wigand, drift and jummy scrimmage was the order of the day and a team lined up with Jenkins and Hill, ends, Greenough and Dunbar, tackles, Kimball and Hubbard, guards; Lee and Hartman, quarterbacks; Owen, Chapin and George, backs.

Harvard players are not too confident, but they think that despite the fact Yale is the favorite, they will upset the dope.

It is expected that if Buell is able to be in the lineup Pitts will be there also. Coburn's injury is not so serious as Buell's, but if Harvard had another week before the Yale game it would not hurt Coburn's injury any.

Now that doubt is expressed about this decade's wonder starting the fray the news arrives that Maltby, the best backer up of the line that Yale possesses, is also out of the running.

The setting of Hammond as a Harvard regular is the big pole of the preparations for the final Crimson classic of the season. This is his first year of varsity football.

Last fall he was fullback on the freshman gridiron. His minor drawback is that he is a little clumsy and consequently easily misled to injury. He is as all a football coach could wish for with the one exception that he is a bit inexperienced in the Harvard football system. He is an able forward passer, of tackle performer, tacker, interceptor and line blocker.

Flatley: New Riddle Stuff Looks and Acts Like O'p Games: Players Always Lose

HUDDING.

ATTEST fashion in football is for players to tangle in round quarterback and not in line. Child huddling. Looks like crap games, though cops don't but in, it sounds like one, when several and events start popping out.

When vote is unanimous, athletes go back to places, then get knocked into own goal posts. Hold indignation on meeting again, and keep doing it until another dance of other team's gang busts it up.

Supposed to be quicker than old method, but times must have been broken, as Harvard, last two Saturdays. Yale was it, so draw your own conclusions.

COMPOSITOR who referred to the game as a "riddle" was a bit late with his stuff. The team quit the stage a year ago.

MY FIRST PROPOSAL.

Alas!—He was a full guy.

DICKY KERR.

SMALL Richard Kerr has applied for reinstatement to captaincy. Probably will get it and should. It is a crying case. Captain Kipling, however, has a reputation some times used by baseball magnates.

Richard wanted a big salary last fall, but he didn't get it. He held out, and meant it. Meanwhile White paid a few million dollars for minor league, all of whom will never be as valuable as Dicky alone.

Kerr was one of the athletes who refused full for the be the staff in the big baseball scandal. He could have collected the whole lot, for he had more brains than anybody else on the club.

GEORGETOWN AMBITION IS TO BEAT EAGLE

Georgetown's battle of the season will be against Boston. Coach Ezzard makes no secret of the fact that he has been saving his strength for the battle with the Eagle, and although the Blue and Grey conquered Bucknell last Saturday, Ezzard declared that he would rather have lost the game than risk the injury to any of his men before the game with Boston.

To defeat a Caranagh-coached machine seems to be the ambition of more than one football coach. Ezzard has accomplished this feat twice, once when the Eagle mentor coached the Dartmouth team, and again last season when his team came from behind in the second half of the game and won over the Eagle by a margin of four points.

Every regular on the Capital eleven will be ready to start against Boston. Coach Ezzard announced that the makeup of his team will be second from the players following: Kenyon or Dufour or Adams, quarterback; Florence and King, ends; Butler and Smith, tackles; Sheehan and Sullivan, guards; and Werts, center.

Paul Florence, who will play one of the wing positions, is a six-foot-eight-inch wide 200 pounds. He has been mentioned by Walter Camp as one of the best ends in the country.

Reports from Washington indicate the spirit of the Georgetown followers is to beat Boston. The Capitalians have been able to show that games are not always won in the first three periods.

Cavanagh is rehearsing several plays to use against the victors. He will only use them if it is absolutely necessary, as Holy Cross will invade Boston but a short week from the Georgetown game.

FORBES' Issues Make Fresh Lows for Year as Prices Run Off in New York Market

VIEWS ON FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes

Charles M. Schwab is not a holder of Bethlehem Steel in his own hands.

He has purposely resigned Bethlehem's financial structure to give every class of stock voting power, so that, although Mr. Schwab retains and will continue to retain all his vast holdings in the corporation, he will not be in any way a majority stockholder or in no-control.

No recent newspaper item has aroused quite so much interest as Mr. Schwab's remark at Westinghouse, before the Federal Trade Commission, that he now had "no definite occupation," and his explanation, "I am now usually chairman of the board of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, president of the American Steel and Wire Company, and a retired steel manufacturer."

As Mr. Schwab did not throw any further light on the matter, it has been very widely interpreted as to just what his statement really meant and as to how far Mr. Schwab was "retired."

The facts are here given authoritatively for the first time.

For two years, and particularly during the past year, Mr. Schwab has been unbelievably more and more of his responsibility upon Eugene O. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel, and his other interests.

For example, Mr. Schwab has spent the entire summer at Jamaica, N. Y., and has given attention to his personal and family affairs from 10 to 11 and from 3 to 4. Like John D. Rockefeller, he has given direct from his office in New York to an office at his home, so that he could have no contact with his associates.

Mr. Schwab has not said nor has he any intention of selling any part of his huge financial interest in Bethlehem Steel.

Before the absorption of Lackawanna by Bethlehem Steel, Mr. Schwab directly controlled his company.

He thus felt wholly responsible for the management, for the administration of Bethlehem Steel.

By resigning the financial structure and giving every class of stock voting power, Mr. Schwab released the feeling of personal responsibility for the conduct of the company's activities.

By handing over most of his regular duties to President Grace, Mr. Schwab has not only relieved himself of his personal responsibility, but has placed the responsibility upon the younger and active executive.

Mr. Schwab does not propose to become a leader. In addition to his other duties, he has continued his work in the steel industry, which he will continue to do, but he has not taken the active part in the steel industry, now that he has passed the sixty mark, to get from the steel industry the maximum of responsibility and burdens which have passed upon him for more than thirty years.
